A. W. Clark who lives on Trow Hill is a competitor with Senator-elect W. A. Lord of Montpelier in the squash-raising line, and he presented the figures of his product which has the Senator-elect beaten to a standstill. This squash grew of its own accord. It weighed when picked from the vine one week ago just 35 pounds and measured 43 inches in circumference. On the same vine three other squashes grew and there is nothing small about them. One weighed 18 pounds, another 14 and the last 12, a total of 72 pounds on the same vine. The length of the main vine was 43 feet and of the branches 65, a total of 108 feet. It was a Hubbard.
